

"The entire experience was very enjoyable! My only regret is that it lasted only six weeks!"

"Our instructor had a delightful sense of humor... shared great stories... overall a wonderful happy two hours!"

You're Invited to attend
OLLI's Spring 2010
Showcase of Classes.

Enjoy light refreshments and hear an overview of each course presented by professors.
Tuesday, January 12, 2010 from 1:00 p.m. - 3:30 p.m. at the
FSU Alumni Center.

"The class was stellar!"

"The two hours flew by ...every lecture was well thought out and presented via videos and lectures in an interesting and integrated way!"

Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at
The Florida State University

OLLI at FSU is a unique program providing academic short courses to adults 50 and older through the resources of The Florida State University. Additional activities include field trips, noontime lectures, a book club, a writers group and a Naturalist Society. You don't need a degree or to be an FSU alumnus to join - and there are no tests or homework! The program is funded through membership fees which entitle participants to attend classes and activities.
